

CHAPTER 5

Part V. From the Marginal Questions

1. How do man's creative abilities prove that he is neither animal nor God, that he is above one and under the other? _____

---

---

---

---

2. Who is the evolutionist's "god"? What is his "bible"? What rich securities and purposes of life are missed by evolutionists? _____

---

---

---

---

3. Why is the world a personal one to the Christian, but impersonal to an evolutionist? What difference in outlook and practice would these two views produce? _____

---

---

---

---

4. What does God's revelation in creation reveal? What necessary truths does it not reveal? _____

---

---

---

---

5. The fallen angels have no possibility of salvation. Fallen man has. How does this fact emphasize the wonderfulness of God's sovereign grace to man? _____

---

---

---

---