

CHAPTER 15

Part V. From the Marginal Questions

1. Why do times of self-sacrifice and persecution separate the temporary-faith believer from the saving-faith believer?

---

---

---

---

2. Why is the “drowning of self,” the being “cut off from the hope in self,” a painful but necessary spiritual experience?

---

---

---

---

3. Explain how trusting faith is both honoring to God and comforting to the true believer.

---

---

---

---

4. Why is unbelief insulting to God?

---

---

---

---

5. Explain how you can observe refuge-seeking, refuge-finding, and refuge-assuring faith in the experiences of the prodigal son’s return to his father.
