

CHAPTER 18

Part V. From the Marginal Questions

1. Can a person's conscience always be his guide? Why or why not? Can a person be sincere, but be sincerely wrong? Explain.

2. Is the Old Testament only law? Is the New Testament only gospel? Explain.

3. Which of the seven errors regarding God's law are errors of underemphasizing the importance of the law? Which are errors of overemphasizing the position of the law?

4. Why is the rejection of God's Word not only sinful and rebellious, but also foolish?

5. In practice, how do both permissiveness and legalism deny the Bible as the only, infallible source of truth?
