Part VII. Project Ideas

1. Present an oral group presentation, using overhead transparencies, explaining various practical, scriptural principles relating to the sixth commandment, such as capital punishment, abortion, euthanasia, life-support systems, risk-taking, tobacco smoking, wine and alcohol use, and drug abuse.
2. Do the same as the first project idea, but on topics relating to the seventh commandment, such as human sexuality and marriage as gifts from God, reasons for avoiding premarital sex, true love distinguished from infatuation and lust, dating guidelines, desired qualities for husbands and wives, divorce and remarriage, pornography avoidance, and dress and appearance.
3. Select one of the sixteen practical topics listed in numbers one and two above to research further and produce a teaching poster or bulletin board on the topic.
4. Construct two murals as a class, one on the sixth and the other on the seventh commandment with as many practical example cases as possible. From the basis of scriptural principles, state why each case would be proper or improper.
